PREFATORY.

IN early boyhood days, the writer became impressed with a strong desire to know who the ancestors of the Parthemore Family were, where they first settled in America, and from what country they came. In conversation with relatives and old citizens, nothing could be obtained beyond the third generation, which embraced our grandfather, his brothers and sisters, and very little of them was preserved, either by tradition or in writing. In the spring of 1883, we determined to see how much of our family history could be restored. How difficult this task was can well be imagined when it is considered that up to that time no one could give our great-grandfather's christian name, or tell when he died, or where buried. From this it will appear, and truthfully so, that no one made an effort to preserve the genealogy of the family in America. We, however, set ourselves to the task, not thinking at the time that research would be so extensive and complete as it is presented in this volume; and whatever we have accomplished has been done from a desire to know who the members of the family are, and with a considerable amount of pride which we take in our name. The one great difficulty experienced in gathering and preparing the facts as they are here given was to obtain replies to letters directed to persons after we have their address. At least one half of the letters written to the different members of the family were never answered. We make some allowance for this seeming negligence, but could never understand why it should have been so general, and this was naturally a great disappointment to the writer in many instances. This explains why the sketches of some families are incomplete, because of our inability to enlist the services of those who should have been interested, and who, with little trouble, could have furnished us with complete data. In a few instances this was impossible, as the families had died out and left no record behind.

As before stated, the author had little knowledge of the family and its connections outside of the Parthemores who lived in and about Highspire and Middletown, Dauphin county, Pennsylvania, and even some of these, who are descendants from my father's cousins, and have changed the name by marriage, were not known. Many of the Parthemores, with their descendants, live in Dauphin county, Pennsylvania, and Union county, Ohio. How to get a clue to the history of those living in Ohio was perplexing until a second cousin, Miss HATTIE PARTHEMORE, became interested and gave us much valuable information. To her we are especially indebted for many of the records, and she never seemed to weary of the labor it required. We feel justified in saying that but for her zeal and energy we would not have been enabled to give so full and complete a record of the family in that portion of the country. To gather all the facts and make the correct family connections, and arrange them in accurate and convenient chronological order, was a laborious task; the latter, we confess, we were not equal to, and had it not been for the courteous, and competent, and widely-known historian of Pennsylvania, WILLIAM H. EGGLE, M. D., M. A., Harrisburg, Pa., we would have given up the effort or hope of ever seeing this book in print. But he was always ready with his information and assistance whenever sought, and which we often felt was too frequent on our part; though he is a stranger to you all, yet he deserves the thanks and praise of the friends and relatives for his appreciative favors. To give an account of the difficulties and disappointments with which we met, outside of the one just mentioned above, in completing this work, would, in itself, furnish a very interesting and readable chapter. We are, nevertheless, under obligations to many of the freundschaft for facts furnished, and proper acknowledgment is made in the several biographical sketches.

If any of the names or dates in this volume are incorrect, it is because they were incorrectly furnished to us. We exercised the greatest care in collecting the facts, and still greater in putting them into order, free from error, as far as possible. For these errata those interested the most are to blame. Had they realized the importance of the work, we feel confident they would have bestowed more time and care in furnishing us with further data of value to them and others of the Family.

As this book gives a complete record of the family, with but few unimportant exceptions, dating from the native place of our progenitor, who found a new home in this "land of the free and home of the brave," and coming down to the present generation, we trust the record may be continued from time to time by every one who receives a copy of this volume.

We regard the work strictly a genealogical record of the Parthemore family. It is intended only for our own use, and although some may be compelled to go back two, three, and, in some cases, four generations before they will discover the name Parthemore in their ancestor, we claim them as members of our family, and trust that to them the book will be equally interesting.

After many months of anxiety and labor, traveling many miles in cars, private conveyance, and on foot, delving among old church records and public documents, wandering into old grave-yards, through briars and weeds, this biographical and genealogical history is the result. Often have we wished that it might have fallen to the lot of some abler writer to perform the work. But such as it is we give it to the family. Our labor has been conscientiously performed.

To love God is a great privilege, and untold benefits will accrue to him who bestows his love upon Him in sincerity. To love and obey our ancestors is a command which none but the most cruel and hard-hearted will disobey. The former privileges you no doubt enjoy, and if, by reading these pages, you will be induced to do the latter, then the object of our work will be realized in a very full measure.

E. WINFIELD SCOTT PARTHMORE.

HARRISBURG, PENN'A,

July 1, 1885.

It will be noticed in this Genealogy that the surname Parthemore is not spelled alike. This is not unusual for any surname, and especially among the Germans. As to the origin of the name Parthemore we have no opinion or knowledge. The majority of the descendants of John Frederick Parthemore write it as we have done in the title page of the record, especially those who speak but little German, or none at all.

In our possession, the old documents given in the Part First, which is the best evidence, in the original orthography, or German, it is written Parthemor, but from the pen of some of our best English-German scholars they give the translation Parthemore; as, for instance, in the German, in making a request for more, you say "geven sie mir mehr," while in the English it would be "give me more;" hence the necessity, in English, to write the last syllable "more" and not "mer." It is not only true in our surname, but in many other names is it written in the German by English people, and among those who have married into our family have the following: the German spelling in brackets, Shell [Schell], Fisher [Fischer], Bey-erly [Bierly], Alleman [Allimon], Winagle [Wentnagle], Hypsher [Hypscher], Shoop [Schoop], Richerd [Reighard].

It would, of course, be gratifying if all who bear this name would conform to the correct way, but this is hardly possible. In our youth we were taught to write the name "Pathmore," but on seeing a three-bushel grain bag of Grandfather Parthemore, with his name on it, we ever wrote it thus, though little thinking that we were correct, as it has been verified by the original papers previously alluded to.

EDITOR.

PARTHEMORE FAMILY.

JOHN FREDERICK PARTHEMORE was the son of John Henry Parthemore, the date of whose birth we have been unable to ascertain; he emigrated to America in 1744, landing at Philadelphia, October 20, from the ship Phoenix, William Wilson, captain, from Rotterdam, last from Cowes. He resided, prior to his emigrating, at Sprendlingen, in the province of Rhein-Hessen, Grand Duchy of Hesse-Darmstadt, southern Germany. The town has now about 2,000 inhabitants, and lies about fifteen miles due south of Frankfurt-on-the-Main. He was not an exile from his native country, as the following State paper will show, the original of which, in German, is in our possession :

“CARD OF DISMISSAL.

“We, Ludwig George, by the grace of God, Margrave of Baden and Hochberg, Landgrave of Staufenberg, Count of Sponheim and Eberstein, Herr of Roetteln, Baadenweisler, Lahr, Mahlberg, of the bailiwick Orttenu and Kehl, Knight of the Golden Fleece, &c.

“Acknowledge and make known that on the sight of the most humble petition of Johann Friedrich Parthemore, born in Sprendlingen, we have graciously dismissed the same from the bondage in which he has been up to this time held by us; however, with the distinct understanding that in case the said Johann Friedrich Parthemore should, in the course of time, locate again in a place where we have bonded subjects, the same shall be again bound to us as has been customary.

“Whereunto we have set our hand and private seal.
Done at our private residence, city of Rastadt, January 9, 1744.

LOUIS M. BADEN.

“On command of our most worthy Master, the Margrave.

In religion, John Frederick Parthemore was a communicant of the Reformed Church, as is shown by the following church paper, the original of which, in German, we have:

“Jesus Christ with His Treasure of Salvation be with the Christian Reader.

“Johann Friedrich Parthemore, formerly a citizen and inhabitant of the town of Sprendlingen, in the margravate of Baden-Baden, who will show these few lines, is, with his whole household, (to wit, his wife, Anna Maria, and his six children, of whom the first daughter, Susanna Margaretha, is twenty-one years old; Anna Katharina, eighteen; Maria Eva, sixteen; Johann Phillip, thirteen; Johannes, twelve; and Johann Wilhelm, one half year,) a member of our holy reformed faith. Inasmuch as he with his loved ones have been received into our church by the sacrament of holy baptism, (as the church records of this place show,) and whereas he and his family have lived among us a peaceable, quiet, and honorable life, therefore, he and his wife, and his four eldest children, have been often and frequently admitted to the partaking of the very holy supper.

"Whereas, now the said Johann Friedrich Parthemore, with his household described above, has the intention to depart from us and make his future domicile in Pennsylvania, and whereas he has asked me in a becoming manner for a credible certificate about his life and behavior among us, and also about the behavior of his family, we have granted his request, and have written the above and have set my seal to it.

"I, therefore, ask now the very reverend clergy, to whom this certificate will be handed, to receive the said Johann Friedrich Parthemore with his family as full members into our Reformed church.

"May the God of grace and mercy accompany the parents with their children in all their ways; may He be their guardian and protector for the sake of Jesus Christ.

JOHANN WILHELM NISBERG,

"SPRENDLINGEN, May 22, 1744."

Where Mr. Parthemore located is not positively known, but it was, no doubt, in Derry township, then Lancaster, now Dauphin county, in the Province of Pennsylvania. He died in the year 1752,—the authority for this statement being found of record in the Register's office at Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where his wife, "Anna Maria Patomor," files her bond in the sum of £50, with Valentine Gloninger and John Hollinger bondsmen, as administratrix on his estate. The bond is dated May 21, 1752, and from this fact it is evident he died in the early part of that year. We have been unable to find out what his estate consisted of, and, if real, where it was located.

He married, June 10, 1721, Anna Maria Weinmann, daughter of Philip Weinmann and Susannah Margaret his wife. Where the former was born or died, and where she or her husband are buried, is not known; but it is likely, as was the custom of the Germans in the early days of this country, they were buried in some quiet corner of the farm, and in the lapse of time all vestige of the family God's-acre has been removed or lost. They had issue:

- i. Susannah-Margaret, b. February 14, 1723; the god-mother at her baptism was Susannah Margaret Weinmann, her grandmother. We have no further information of her.
- ii. John-Henry, b. August 20, 1724; d. December 6, 1724.
- iii. Anna-Katharina, b. April 28, 1726; god-mother at baptism was Anna Katharina, wife of John Wilhelm Ruppert. We have been unable to learn anything further of her.
- iv. Maria-Eva, b. August 15, 1728; god-mother at baptism was Maria Eva, wife of John Furfelder; and, like her sisters, has lost the name, if she lived to the marriageable age.
- v. Anna-Elizabeth (1st), b. August 15, 1731; d. November 21, 1732.
- vi. Anna-Elizabeth (2d), b. November 1, 1733; d. March 29, 1735.
- vii. Johann-Philip, b. April 29, 1736; sponsor or god-father at baptism, John Philip Weinmann, grandfather; d. January, 1797, in Middletown, Pa.; m. Anna Eve Hypsher.
- viii. Johann, b. February 27, 1738; d. December 12, 1812, in Susquehanna township, Dauphin county, Pa.: m., first, a Miss Shoop; second, Catharine, widow of Martin Shell.

- ix. Anna-Eva, b. August 14, 1740; d. December 10, 1842.
- x. Johann-Wilhelm, b. November 7, 1743; god-father at baptism was Wilhelm Weinmann, brother-in-law of John Frederick Parthemore. Of his history we know nothing, although we have made diligent search for some record or data. He was six months old when his parents emigrated from Germany, and, as it frequently took as long as twenty weeks to cross the ocean, it is very likely that he never survived the voyage.

John Frederick Parthemore, the son of John Henry, and the head of the Parthemorè family in America, had a brother whose record was copied from the old church register in Sprendlingen, and we give it here :

John Jacob Parthemore m., September 6, 1718, Magdalena Weiler, daughter of John Weiler and Anna Margaret his wife. They had issue :

- i. Maria-Margaretta, b. October 19, 1719; god-mother, Maria Margareta, wife of John Hangen.
- ii. John-Henry, b. December 14, 1721; god-father, John Henry Parthemore.
- iii. Anna-Elizabeth, b. February 6, 1723; god-mother, Anna Elizabeth, wife of Simon Marthemer.
- iv. John, b. August 4, 1726; god-father, John Weiler.
- v. Anna-Margaretta, b. April 20, 1732; god-mother, Anna Mary, wife of John Weiler.
- vi. John-Jacob, b. October 6, 1734; god-father, John Jacob Stellwagen.

We have information from the Rev. F. L. Fabrisens, pastor of the church at Sprendlingen, Germany, that whatever exists of the Parthemore descendants now are known by the name of "Partenheimers," residing at Pleitersheim, one German league from Sprendlingen. There are residing in Philadelphia persons of this name whose ancestors at the beginning of this century emigrated from near where the Parthemore family originated, and no doubt are of our stock.

PART FIRST.

John Philip Parthemore.

I. JOHN PHILIP PARTHEMORE,² the eldest son of John Frederiek Parthemore and Anna Maria Weinmann, was born April 29, 1736, in the town of Sprendlingen, province of Rhein-Hessen, Grand Duchy of Hesse-Darmstadt, Germany; d. January, 1797, in or about the vicinity of Middletown, Dauphin county, Pennsylvania. The first record we have of him is in the assessment-list for 1770, for Middletown, in Paxtang township, Lancaster county, Province of Pennsylvania, where "Philip Bartimore" is assessed as a property-owner. In the list of "Non-Associators" for Paxtang township, August 20, 1777, we find the name of "Philip Patimor." Non-Associators were those who were, from some cause or other, exempt from military duty. We find him also following the religious principles of his parents, i. e., he was a member of the Reformed church, and no doubt a prominent member, as will be seen from the deed which was granted for a piece of ground to be used for a burial-place and to erect a house of worship on, he being named in it as one of the two trustees. The ground referred to is in the borough of Middletown, Pennsylvania, on the corner of High and Pine streets, and wherein he is buried, (as well as many of his descendants,) but no stone marks his grave, and hence it is unknown. He was by occupation a blacksmith, and no doubt followed his vocation, for in the year 1767, at Middletown, the year in which old St. Peter's Lutheran church was built, he did the smith-work for it. As we desire to give all the knowledge of a historical nature as well as genealogical, we insert a true copy of the old deed for the graveyard above referred to, and which is sometimes called the Parthemore burial-place. It is written on parchment, with the regular indenture cut on the top, and in good preservation, except that the ink has faded.

“ THIS INDENTURE, made the twenty-second day of May, and in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy, and in the tenth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &ca., Between George Frey, of Paxton township, in the county of Lancaster and Province of Pennsylvania, yeoman, and Catharine, his wife, of the one part, and John Backenstow, of the township, county, and province aforesaid, sadler, and Philip Baltimore [should be spelled Parthemore] of the same township, county, and province aforesaid, blacksmith, of the other part, witnesseth that the said George Frey and Catharine, his wife, as well for and in consideration of the sum of five shilling lawful money of the province aforesaid, to them and each of them in hand paid by the said John Backenstow and Philip Balti-

In front, on High street, fifty feet, extending to Pine street, thence in depth on Pine street two hundred feet to the line of lands of George Frey's lands, thence along the line of the said George Frey's land fifty feet, thence along the line of some other lots of the said George Frey two hundred feet to the place of beginning; and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues, and profits, there and of every part and parcel thereof, and all the estate, rights, title, interest, trust, profit, claim, and demand whatsoever of them the said George Frey and Catharine, his wife, or either of them of, in, or to, or out of the lot or piece of ground aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and of every part and parcel thereof, to have and to hold the said lot or piece of ground, with the appurtenances unto the said John Backenstow and Philip Baltimore [Parthemore] their heirs and assigns forever, to and for the uses and purposes following: That is to say, to and for the use of the members in communion with the church commonly called the German Calvinist or Presbyterian church, and to and for the purposes of a site for a church or house of religious worship, and for a burying ground for the members aforesaid, within the province aforesaid, pursuant to an act of General Assembly of the said province, enacted in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled an act for the enabling the Religious Societies of Protestants within this province to purchase lands for burying grounds, churches, houses of worship, schools, &c., and to and for no other use, intent, or purpose whatsoever, and the said George Frey and Catharine, his wife, for themselves, their heirs, executors, and administrators, doth hereby covenant, promise, grant, and agree to and with the said John Backenstow and Philip Baltimore [Parthemore] their heirs, executors, and administrators by these presents, that the said George Frey and Catharine, his wife, and their heirs, the above-mentioned lot or piece of ground, with the appurtenances, unto them the said John Baekenstow and Philip Baltimore

And further, that he, the said George Frey, and Catharine, his wife, and their heirs, shall and will at any time or times hereinafter upon the request and the costs and charges of them the said John Backenstow and Philip Baltimore [Parthemore] their executors and administrators, make, do suffer, and execute all and every such further and other lawful and reasonable act and acts, thing and things, conveyance and assurance in the law whatsoever for the further, better, more sure, and perfect granting, conveying, and assuring and confirming the said lot or piece of ground with the appurtenances unto the said John Backenstow and Philip Baltimore [Parthemore] their heirs and assigns, and to and for the uses, intents, and purposes before expressed as in them or their counsel learned in the law, shall be reasonably advised, devised, or required. And the said John Backenstow and Philip Baltimore [Parthemore] respectably and their respective heirs, executors, and administrators do thereby declare and agree that the grant and release aforesaid, made as aforesaid to them, their heirs, and assigns, is not made for them or either of their private use, benefits, and advantages, but only in trust, and to the end and intent that the lot or piece of ground aforesaid, with the appurtenances, may, from time to time, forever hereafter be used and enjoyed as and for the site of a church or house of religious worship and burying ground by the members in communion with the church commonly called as aforesaid the German Calvinist or Presbyterian church, within the said province, and that the names of the said John Backenstow and Philip Baltimore [Parthemore] are only made use of herein for the ends, intents, and purposes aforesaid. And the said John Backenstow and Philip Baltimore [Parthemore] themselves respectably and their respective heirs, executors, and administrators do hereby covenant, promise, declare, and agree with the said George Frey, his executors and administrators in manner following: that is to say, that they the said John Backenstow and Philip Baltimore [Parthemore] and their respective heirs, executors, and administrators shall and will, from time to time, and at all times, forever hereafter permit and suffer the said lot or piece of ground hereby granted and released or intended so to be, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, to be held, used and enjoyed by the members in communion with the [said Church] within the said province, subject to such orders and regulations as may be made.

“Be it remembered that on the twenty-second day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy, came before me, James Burd, Esquire, one of His Majesties justices, &c., for the county of Lancaster, George Frey and Catharine, his wife, and desired that the above indenture shall be recorded as their act and deed, they having acknowledged the same before me as such, the said Catharine being of full age, knowing the contents and freely consenting thereunto, being by me separately and apart examined, as witness my hand and seal the day and year for it above written.

JAMES BURD, [L. S.]”

John Philip Parthemore m., about the year 1760, ANNA EVE HYPsher, daughter of Ulrich Hypsher. Her father had warranted to him by the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania, October 26, 1750, fifty acres of land in Derry township, then Lancaster county. Mrs. Parthemore died in the year 1820, in Middletown, and in the winter of 1883 we learned from Jacob Benner, then eighty-six years old, who knew her, that she was of small stature and features, and suffered from the deformity of a large lump on her neck under the chin. She is buried in the Reformed graveyard, Middletown, Pennsylvania. As we know very little of her, we append her will, which we copy from will-book D, page 218, recorder's office, Harrisburg, Dauphin county, Pennsylvania. It is not necessary to make comments on this document, but we simply call attention to the first part or introduction to it. Few wills in our day contain such a full confession of faith of the one who is to depart from her family and friends. Not only are they to hold in possession her worldly goods, but also the faith in which she lived and died. And as if this was the most precious, it is the first mentioned in the testament. We presume this portion of it will especially strike the reader as being very explicit. May the whole family ever acknowledge the importance of living a Christian life.

ANNA EVE PARTHMORE'S WILL.

" In the name of God, Amen. I, Anna Eve Parthemore, of Middletown, in the county of Dauphin, and State of Penna., being sick and weak of body, but of sound mind and memory and understanding, (Praised be God for it,) and considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of this life, therefore, and to the end I may be the better prepared to leave this world whenever it shall please God to call me hence, do, therefore, make and decree this my last will and testament in manner following, to wit: First, and principally, I commend my soul into the hands of Almighty God, my creator, hoping for free pardon and remission of all my sins. My body I commend to the earth at the discretion of my executors hereinafter named, and as to such worldly estate wherein it hath pleased God to entrust me with, I dispose of the same as follows, to wit: First, it is my will and I do order that all my just debts and funeral expenses be duly paid as soon as conveniently it may be after my decease. Item. I do order and appoint my executor hereinafter mentioned as soon after my decease as can be to sell my house and four lots of ground, which I possess in Middletown aforesaid, by public sale, and after all my debts and funeral expenses are paid, the remainder of all my goods and credits be made to money; that then there shall be an equal distribution made between all my children, share and share alike; but whereas my son John, now in the State of Ohio, has received of me, or of money for which I am security, one hundred dollars, it is my will that the said sum of one hundred dollars shall be deducted out of his share, and paid into the hands of my sons Jacob and Frederick Parthemore, and son-in-law, Daniel Fisher, of whom it was borrowed, and I do make and ordain my son, Jacob Parthemore, executor of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof, I, Anna Eve Parthemore, the testatrix, have to this, my last will and testament, set my hand and seal the fourth day of December, in the year of our Lord 1815.

“ANNA EVE PARTHEMORE, [L. S.]

“Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the above-named Anna Eve Parthemore, as and for her last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at her request and in her presence, have subscribed our names, as witnesseseth.

JAC. PEELOR,
JOHN REMLEY.”

Proved October 31 and November 15, 1820, in register's office, Harrisburg, Pa.

II. JOHN PARTHEMORE,³ (John-Philip,² John-Fredrick,¹) b. January 22, 1764, in Derry township, Lancaster, now Dauphin, county, Pa.; d. September 11, 1840, in Union county, Ohio, and is buried in the Mitchell grave-yard, near Milford Centre, Ohio. In the year 1798, he removed to near Staunton, in the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, where he resided about thirteen years, and while there was the possessor of some land, and was also sexton of the stone church (Presbyterian) which stood on his farm. About 1812, he removed to Chillicothe, Ross county, Ohio, where a cousin, Mrs. Jacob Beyerly, lived. About 1814, he moved to what is now Union county, Ohio, where he resided the balance of his days. The farm which he owned in Union county, and on which he resided up to his death, is now owned by Ray G. Morse, who married one of his daughters. About the year 1816, his wife, hearing of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Shell, who resided in Lower Paxtang, or West Hanover township, Dauphin county, Pa., and learning that a gentleman in Columbus, Ohio, by the name of Heroff, was coming East, her husband, John Parthemore, escorted her to Columbus, where she was to be accompanied to Pennsylvania by Mr. Heroff; but, on arriving there, the gentleman was sick, and could not proceed on his journey. John endeavored to persuade his wife to return home with him; but she said, weeping, that she must see her mother once more, and, after some coaxing, she persuaded her husband to return home and care for the children, which he did, and she made the journey, over six hundred miles, from Columbus, Ohio, to Harrisburg, Pa., on horseback, and unaccompanied. On her return to her own home in Ohio, she filled her pocket with apple seeds before starting, which she had gathered at the old cider-press, and taking them with her, she planted them in the nursery, and now there is a plot of ground of three acres of an apple orchard from those seeds, not more than two trees bearing the same kind of fruit, and the yield a never-failing one.

It is given as a traditional story that, in the early days at their new home, when the woods were full of wild game of all kinds, and numerous Indians, though not savage, he, (John,) in company with two others, were out gunning, and losing their way, and night overtaking them, they came across an old hut, in which they resolved to take shelter for the night. Crawling up through a small hole to the loft of this hut, they found a few bundles of flax, which afforded them a good bed. During the night, they heard a noise below, and one of their number, being very curious to know who was there, or from whence the noise, crawled stealthily to the hole to take a peep, and as he did so he got on the end of a board that projected, which tilted with him, throwing him below amongst a number of Indians, and when he landed, he jumped up and shouted, "Here they are, boys," which so frightened the Indians that they ran away, leaving their guns and all behind.

"In the year 1775, on the 16th of May, John Mathias Wentnagle entered into holy bonds of matrimony with Agnes Ehrlisen [Earley], but the Lord of life and death called him out of this troublesome world into a joyous eternity in the year 1792, on the 8th of January. September 23, 1818, near Middletown Pa.; emigrated with his father in 1839 to Union county, Ohio, in wagons; in 1853, with his own family, to Iowa; and lastly, in 1859, to Kansas, where, at Barrett, Marshall county, he has since resided. He taught school in the winter of 1840, in Ohio, and as it is a long time ago, and several generations have appeared on the scene of action who have no knowledge or experience of those school-days. we give his reminiscences. He says: "I boarded in turns with my scholars, and was only twenty years old, yet I had some scholars who were my seniors. On one Christmas day I was 'penned out'; the scholars wished me to treat them and I pretended I would not. In the morning the scholar I slept with arose very early without my finding it out, went to the school-house, and met others of the school. About nine o'clock I arrived there and strolled quietly along the fence to the school-house, climbed on the old log-cabin roof, took a loose clapboard, and covered it over the chimney to smoke them out. They had fastened the windows and were trying to put out the largest boy, believing if they could do this there would be no difficulty in putting me out when I came. On discovering the smoke coming into the house from the stove, consternation seized them; some tore up the floor and got under the building. At last they found I was on the roof. I then came down therefrom, and with a club knocked the pins out of the door, for they had no nails in it, but it was too well barricaded to open. I again got on the roof, took up some boards, made an opening, and went through into the loft. I was not discovered, and waited for an opportune moment, when I jumped down into the room and commanded them to take their books, others to open the doors, when a half dozen took hold of me to put me out, and in our tussling we upset the smaller scholars. and I feared some would be hurt, but I finally weakened and they put me out. Then I agreed to treat, which I did by purchasing a bushel of apples and closing the school for the day." Most of the scholars from the whole district came to see the scholars of his school "pen him out." He says it pleased parents and children alike. When Mr. Parthemore went to Kansas, which was on the 2nd of October, 1859, the country had suffered from a drought, and nothing was raised, which made him so poor he could not get away. The next year he was elected a justice of the peace, and also appointed postmaster, holding the positions for fifteen years, when he resigned both. He has also held the office of township trustee and treasurer. Is now engaged in merchandising, and in comfortable circumstances. Mr. Parthemore m., first, December 22, 1841, MARIA S. Harrisburg, Pa. ; baptized February 21, 1881, by Bishop J. J. Glossbrenner ; witnesses, Ida Early and Isora Crist, of Hummelstown, Pa. ; died Tuesday evening, at seven o'clock, February 6, 1883, of scarlet fever, after an illness of two days. Although a mere babe, yet, with all the earnestness of his soul, on the Sunday prior to his death, he sang :

“Jesus is a rock in a weary land,
To shelter in the time of storm.”

The Monthly Itinerant, of Harrisburg, for March 1, 1883, contained the following, “We’ll meet our Darling Boy,” written by Prof. I. L. Kephart :

Leon Leroy, how we miss thee !
Noble, blithesome, darling boy !
Can we never more caress thee ?
Father’s pride and mother’s joy.

By our Heavenly Father given ;
How thou did’st our spirits cheer !
He has taken thee to heaven,
And our home seems lone and drear.

Fever suddenly assailed thee ;
Ruthlessly it laid thee low !
Vainly did we seek to shield thee—
Naught could turn aside the blow.

Sadly, with our poor hearts bleeding,
Did we view the work of death—
View it rob us of our darling,
Steal away our Leon’s breath !

Sorrowful, we bore thy body
To the cold and silent tomb ;
And, with aching hearts, we laid it
In its little, narrow home.

O, why should death slay our darling?

He so young, so innocent!

Dark, mysterious is the ruling

Of this wondrous Providence.

But, away this gloomy sadness;

God vouchsafes a blissful hope!

Life once spent, we'll meet our Leon

Where no farewell word is spoke!

And, till then, we'll seek for shelter

'Neath the Rock of which you sung;

Jesus safely folds our loved one

In his glorious, heavenly home.

Farewell, then, but not forever;

Death, ere long, will set us free,

And, in heaven, we'll join our Leon,

There to dwell eternally.

In the year 1785, the county of Dauphin was formed from that of Lancaster, and at the first court held in May of the same year, John Parthemore was drawn to serve on the first jury. He died at his home near Harrisburg, December 27, 1812, and is buried in the old grave-yard at Shoop's Church, being a communicant of the Reformed branch worshipping there. He married, first, about the year 1760, Miss SHUPP, or SHOOP; when she was born or died we have no record, but from this union sprang all his children. He married, secondly, in 1774, Mrs. ANNA CATHARINE SHELL, widow of Martin Shell, senior, and daughter of Adam Dffenbach, of Tulpehocken, Berks county, Pa.; b. December 27, 1739; d. October 17, 1817; buried by the side of her second husband. To remove all doubts as to his second wife's ancestry and former marriage, we insert the following, which will be of interest:

Fortunately, we came across two letters, written in German, by Jacob Beyerly, which have given us much information, and show, also, that he was of more than ordinary intellectual ability, which are herewith translated. They were written to his brother-in-law, John Parthemore:

SPRINGFIELD TOWNSHIP, ROSS COUNTY, OHIO,
August 14, 1812.

GREETING :

To you friends and relations :

I hope these few lines will find you in good health. When you left us we were yet well. Again, I have received your letter of August twelfth, and have noted your sorrowful condition, but not as sorrowful as mine ; as my dearly beloved wife died on the tenth day of August, between eight and nine o'clock, A. M. On the sixth day of August I went to the salt works. She was fresh and hearty when I left home ; when I was away, and on the eighth of August, between three and four o'clock, she went into the spring-house and put the cream into the butter-churn, after which she drank some thick milk, and then went into the house. As she came into the house, she said she was sick, and told the children they should call me, but they told her I was not at home, but they would send for me. She said no, for he has gone to the salt-works. Then they called in the neighbors, and about two hours thereafter she was taken with convulsions and was unable to talk. On the ninth day of August they sent for me, and met me twenty miles from home. I arrived at one o'clock, P. M., but she did not recognize me, and was unable to speak one word to me. This is what makes my sorrow much greater, but I am assured she died happy, as her whole life proved it.

She and I have had a heaven here upon earth, since we lived in peace and unity with each other.

I can well say that she calls me. What great peace there is yonder in Christ's garden. Oh, how glorious the sound, where so many thousand seraphim, with unwearied lips and songs, their hallelujahs sing. Oh, could I there be found, oh, sweet God, before your throne, and bearing many palms ; I would with angels love to praise your name with thousand beautiful psalms Amen.

So far as her worldly life was concerned, she attained the age of forty-three years and eleven months, less three days ; and lived twenty-one years and eight months, less five days, in a married state. Our union was blessed with eleven children, viz :

Three sons and eight daughters, of whom eight are still living, and three are with their mother in eternity.

We have enough of everything, but no contentment. * * * I would still have a great deal to write to you, but my bereavement is so great that I cannot express it in these few lines. I will close with so much. From your brother and brother-in-law, friend, and well-wisher,

JACOB BEYERLY.

STATE OF OHIO,
SPRINGFIELD TOWNSHIP, ROSS COUNTY,

March 10, 1813.

A Friendly Greeting to you, great'y beloved brother-in-law and friends :

I hope these few lines will find you in a good state of health. When you left me I was in moderately good health, but in a very sorrowful condition of mind. Upon this earth I have no happiness. My heart lies buried. All this causes nothing but grief to me all my days. I received your letter the fourth day of March, 1813. You have written to me about my children, and their names and ages.

Mary-Elizabeth was twenty years on January 14, 1813; Catharine was eighteen years old February 22, 1813; John will be seventeen years old December 17, 1813; Jacob was fourteen years old February 20, 1813; Nancy will be twelve years old July 13, 1813; Frederick will be ten years old September 13, 1813; Sarah was five years old February 5, 1813, and Polly will be four years old November 12, 1813.

Elizabeth is married to Benjamin Musselman. He has a distillery on the sea or river, [evidently meaning a lake,] and seven hundred acres of the best farming land in the vicinity.

Catharine is married to Jacob Immell, and they have a young son. They have left me, and I have no one to keep house for me but Nancy, who is not yet twelve years old.

* * * * *

I wish that I could live another twenty years yet 'with my wife Elizabeth. I would cheerfully walk one thousand miles, barefooted, and begin housekeeping in the forests. We both worked very hard during our lifetime, and when once we had enough to live comfortably, death separated us. But the Lord wished to have it so. The greatest comfort I have in this world is that she died happy, as her walk in life during the past few years fully proved. * * * * * *
